

From: bounce-113956-2180025@listserv.state.ma.us on behalf of Olson, Scott D (HRD) <Scott.D.Olson@state.ma.us>
Sent: Thursday, December 22, 2005 6:59 PM
To: Farak, Sonja (DPH)
Subject: Commonwealth of Massachusetts Employee Charitable Campaign

First to arrive, last to leave.
Increasing productivity by 80%.
And funding medical research, protecting the environment,
fighting social injustice, caring for the elderly, educating children...

COMECC understands that you work hard at your work. That's why we've made it easy for you to support the causes you're passionate about. The few dollars a week taken out of your paycheck will go to the charity of your choice.

Sign up once on comecc.net and it's taken care of for the rest of the year.

COMECC cares.
Your pledge will make a difference.

www.comecc.net

To those who keep Massachusetts running:

What gets you fired up? Hunger and homelessness? The AIDS epidemic in Africa? Research to combat devastating illness? Helping children in need? Protecting our wildlife and natural resources? Whatever your passion, now is your chance to advocate for it! The Commonwealth of Massachusetts Employee Charitable Campaign 2006 is running through December. It needs your support. And now that support is easier than ever to provide.

By deducting as little as a few dollars a week from your paycheck, you can significantly assist the charity you're passionate about. Sign up once on comecc.net and it's taken care of for the rest of the year. There are over 900 local, national and international charities to choose from with a variety of interests. COMECC.net allows you to search by charity code, name and region.

You're passionate about something. COMECC makes it easy for you to support your passion. Visit www.comecc.net.

Thank you,

Ruth N. Bramson
Chief Human Resources Officer
Human Resources Division